

Accreditation by Professional Organizations

ACCA – Association of Chartered Certified Accountants

ICAEW – Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales
CIMA – Chartered Institute of Management Accountants

		ACCA - module exemption	ICAEW - module exemption
Year 1		F1-F3 - awarded
Year 2	Management Accounting	F5 - Performance Management	Management Information
	International Financial Reporting	F7 - Financial Reporting	Accounting
	Corporate and Business Law	F4 - Corporate & Business Law	Law
Year 3	Audit and Assurance	F8 - Audit & Assurance	Assurance
	Taxation	F6 - Taxation	Principles of Taxation
	Financial Management	F9 - Financial Management	Financial Management
			Business & Finance
Notes	Please note that these modules are likely to provide similar accreditation with the CIMA qualification.

Association of Project Management

Students achieve a certificate with the Association of Project Managers when they complete the Project Management module.

Chartered Management Institute (CMI)

Students can apply to the CMI for membership and for exemptions from certain CMI qualifications depending on the modules that they have studied. The level of CMI qualification gained is determined by students passing the level 5-degree modules accredited by the CMI.