

AMERICAN COLLEGE
ENG102 ENGLISH WRITING
ECTS Course Syllabus

Code ENG102	Title English Writing
ECTS Credits 6	Department Tourism and Hospitality	Instructor Ms Andria Mavrada
Semester Spring	Cycle First	Language of Instruction English

Description

This course provides material and exercises to develop writing skills of different kinds of texts.

CEFR LEVEL: B2

Learning outcomes

By the end of the course students are expected to:

- Present clear, detailed pieces of writing on a wide range of topics related to different interests. Pieces of writing include essays, articles, reports, reviews, letters and emails.

Prerequisite(s): NONE

Learning methods and educational activities

Lectures, class discussions, pair and group work, writing tips, preparation tasks.

Teaching hours: 39

Assessment methods and weight

Mid-Term Examination:	50%
Final Examination:	50%

Grading system

90-100	A	85-89	B+	80-84	B	75-79	C+
70-74	C	65-69	D+	60-64	D	0-59	F

Required book(s)

Title:	Activate Your Writing
Author(s):	Alexandra Green
Publisher:	Hamilton House
Year:	2020

Content

Week 1	Education: Formal email asking for information.
Week 2	Relationships: Article (personal anecdote).
Week 3	Health Matters: Formal email of application.
Week 4	Around the Globe: Informal email giving advice.
Week 5	Technology Today: Essay (advantages & disadvantages)
Week 6	The Performing Arts: Review
Week 7	The World Around Us: Essay (opinion)
Week 8	Crime: Informal email making suggestions Revision for Mid-term; Mid-term.
Week 9	Fashion: Article (opinion)
Week 10	Property and Housing: Formal letter (opinion)
Week 11	Summer Employment: Formal letter (for or against)
Week 12	Behaviour: Essay (opinion)
Week 13	Consumerism: Report Revision for Final Examination.

Student workload

Activity	Hours
Class attendance	37
Independent Study	38
Test Preparation	7
Test	1
Mid-term Preparation	14
Mid-term Examination	1
Project Preparation	24
Final Exam Preparation	26
Final Examination	2
Total	150