“The need to increase human academic and administrative resources” (p. 10).

As far as human administrative resources are concerned, see our answer in comment 6 above. The need to increase human academic resources is covered through the announcement of a position of Assistant Professor in Diplomatic History (see the announcement in the University’s website: http://www.nup.ac.cy/wp-content/uploads/2014/02/Announcement-of-a-position-of-Assistant-Professor-in-Diplomatic-History.pdf, and in Annex 11). After the appointment of the new Assistant Professor, out of the total 7 (seven) members of the Program’s teaching staff, 5 (five) will be members of the full-time Teaching Research Personnel and only 2 (two) will be members of the Special Teaching Staff, as the following table demonstrates:

<table>
