INTRODUCTION:

I. The External Evaluation procedure

• Short description of the documents that have been studied, of the on site visit meetings, and of the on site visit to the infrastructures.

The required document (200.1) was provided in the English language to the External Evaluation Committee (EEC) by the CYQAA, well in advance of the scheduled visit. The document contained sufficient detail of the College's regulations and procedures, and detailed module descriptors for all modules in Years 1, 2, 3 and 4 of studies. Considering that this program is instructed in the Greek language, it was clarified that the College had to translate the 200.1 from Greek to English for the External Evaluation process.

During the on-site visit, the EEC was welcomed by the Director General, the Legal Advisor, Head of Academic Affairs, Head of Beauty Therapy programs and the Director of the recently formed Research centre of the College.

A bag with additional documents (KES College brochures, Aesthetics brochure, library services, Erasmus+ and Student Welfare Services brochures) was provided to the EEC.

The General Director of the KES College gave a presentation explaining the structure of KES. He also explained that the teaching period has been increased to 55' from 50', based on a recent regulation by the Ministry of Education. He also stated that the maximum target number of students per level for this BSc is 20.

The Head of Academic Affairs then explained about the Erasmus and that students and staff have been benefitting from this. He also explained the review processes for staff based on student feedback questionnaires and how these results are used constructively for staff development and on staff appraisals. The staff peer-review is coordinated by the Education Officer (who must be a PhD holder) and there is currently a vacancy for this post.

The Director of the Research Centre explained about the internal funding process for research projects, a recent successful project (based on a questionnaire survey) in collaboration with a cosmetics company and the plans to fund new projects on research scientific topics.

The Head of Program explained its structure and running, the student placement scheme, charity initiatives and alumni event initiatives. The EEC then started elaborating on the programs' modules clarifying the module objectives and content with the Head of Program.

After lunch, the EEC had the opportunity to meet and discuss with the: teaching staff; six of the students (Years 1, 2 and 3 of the BSc); Head of Welfare Office; Human Resources manager; Marketing manager; and student admin team.

Subsequently, the EEC was shown around the beauty therapy labs, makeup workshop areas, lecture rooms, the IT rooms and the library.

II. The Internal Evaluation procedure

 Comments concerning the quality and the completeness of the application submitted by the institution of higher education (Doc. Number 200.1), as well as concerning the overall acceptance of and participation in the quality assurance procedures, by the institution in general and by the program of study under evaluation in particular.

The 200.1 was written in English and in sufficient detail. However, there were some minor translation errors on the document (from Greek to English) which were pointed out by the EEC.

The Director, the Head of Program and all other relevant staff showed willingness to answer questions, and take on board suggestions and recommendations from the EEC.

FINDINGS:

1. EFFECTIVENESS OF TEACHING WORK - AVAILABLE RESOURCES

- Organization of Teaching Work

The BSc syllabus is distributed across the 4 years of study in thematic modules, with defined teaching periods, weeks and allocated ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System).

The overall assessment strategy and assessment methods per year are presented clearly.

See Part 2.

The EEC noticed that the teaching hours were only in the morning and students have no classes in the afternoon. The student rep (part of the ECC) pointed out that this not aligned to BSc teaching hours at the University of Cyprus where students attend morning and afternoon. The EEC can confirm that this is not aligned to BSc standards at an international level either.

- Teaching

The EEC didn't have the opportunity to observe a teaching session because the timing of the visit coincided with the student exams.

The EEC met and discussed with six students of the program (Years 1 to 3). The students gave positive comments about their studies and the teaching staff and seemed proud to be studying at the KES College. Specific points of good practice, as mentioned by the students, are:

- Approachable and knowledgeable lecturers.
- Balanced curriculum.
- Enjoyed the educational visits at the spas.
- They are able to understand the cohesion of the modules.

Upon questioning by the EEC, students showed understanding on beauty therapies and the role of the endocrine system.

The EEC was provided by the Program leader a selection of teaching material (booklets) for the modules, which have been created by the teaching staff. These included comprehensive study material on Physics, Chemistry and Cosmetology. It was clarified that the Chemistry, Physics, Cosmetology modules do not include lab classes where students conduct experiments and collect data; instead, there are demonstrations of selected experiments by the teaching staff.

The EEC would like to suggest that science modules such as Chemistry, Physics, Cosmetology are accompanied by few simple practical classes where the students can collect data. Eg. pH titrations, formulation of emulsions, preparation of creams (semisolid emulsions) etc, considering that KES College has suitable science labs.

The EEC recommended that the "Thesis" module on the 4th year of studies should be revised to include Practical on the Course Type, so as to be aligned with the BSc level requirement for a final year research project module.

Students acquire the necessary skills in Microsoft Word, Excel, Powepoint via lectures and seminars in the IT rooms and also have access to all taught material per module via Moodle. Plagiarism is monitored via online Turnitin submissions.

The facilities (newly refurbished lecture theatre, IT rooms, beauty labs) are modern and conducive to the delivery of the course. The library has various multimedia resources.

The labs seemed to operate according to GLP (Good Laboratory Practice) and SOPs (Standard Operating Procedures).

The layout of the lab rooms was appropriate; separate labs spaces were allocated for face treatments, makeup and body aesthetic procedures, according to expected standard operating procedures. The equipment were from a reputable supplier and were kept tidy.

Accessibility to various buildings is good.

- Teaching personnel

There are 27 members in the teaching team for the BSc, including the Head of Program.

The Head of the Program is well educated and experienced in the field of Aesthetics and she demonstrated dedication to continuing professional development (CPD). The CVs of the teaching staff show appropriate qualifications ranging from BSc to PhD and some staff having prior or/and current research activity. Also, there are medical professionals with established expertise, as part-time teaching staff to the College.

The EEC has been informed that staff who teach at HE institutions must have at least one qualification higher than the one they teach. Based on this law, the EEC noticed that 4 of the staff are educated only at BSc level and therefore they are not qualified to teach at the same (BSc) level.

The EEC met with the teaching staff to discuss their teaching experience. Comments were:

- The College provides opportunities for career progression eg Erasmus exchange (for 1 week or semester), financial coverage for participation at seminars and conferences by the College; appraisals take place twice a year.
- Ability for full-time or part-time employment.
- Keen to do research.
- Good rapport with the students.

The representative of the Cyprus Association of Beauticians (part of the EEC) was pleased that the staff teaching the Aesthetics elements of the Diploma were all registered with the Association.

2. PROGRAM OF STUDY AND HIGHER EDUCATION QUALIFICATIONS

- Purpose and Objectives and learning outcomes of the Program of Study The Program's Purpose and objectives were rendered appropriate by the EEC.

- Structure and Content of the Program of studies

- The EEC noticed discrepancies on the module titles, teaching periods and week numbers between the submitted 200.1 document for Evaluation and the advertising brochure 2018/19. The correct titles must be clarified to the EEC and must be corrected to appear consistently in all documents. For example:
 - Semester 3: The module title is "Endocrinology" on the brochure and "Aesthetic Endocrinology" on the 200.1 doc. Looking on the module descriptor there is no reference of Aesthetic endocrinology. Also there are different teaching periods/ECTS values: 3/5 on the brochures and 2/3 on the 200.1 document.
 - Semester 5: The module "Health and Safety at work" has similar discrepancies.
 - Semester 7: the module "Botanology". etc, etc

The EEC recommends that the Program team checks carefully ALL modules in the brochure and the 200.1 doc and explains to the EEC which are the correct ones, as there are mistakes in most of them (not only those listed above)

- The Manicure Pedicure module is on Semester 5 on the brochure and on Semester 3 on the 200.1 doc. This has an implication on the coherence of the syllabus. On Dermatology I, there should be more detail on nail disorders (eg viral, yeast, bacterial infections) to ensure students are aware of the risks involved and therefore of the correct procedures that must be followed for manicure and pedicure.
- All modules should indicate "Prerequisite" and "Required" as evidence of the coherence of the syllabus.

Quality Assurance of the Program of studies

The KES College has a central coordinator for Quality Assurance who is the Head of Academic Affairs.

There was evidence of Quality Assurance for the quality of teaching via the peerreview and student feedback processes. The Head of Academic Affairs showed to the EEC a booklet with detailed data evaluation from student feedback.

During the discussions, it was explained to the EEC that there are internal moderation processes for exam papers and coursework.

Management of the Program of Study

The BSc belongs to the Professions of Health of the KES College. The BSc is managed by the Head of Program.

There are specific teaching staff leading each module of the BSc.

During the visit, the EEC had the opportunity to meet and discuss with the Head and module leaders. The EEC panel is pleased with the expertise of the management team.

International Dimension of the Program of Study

Currently, this program has only students from Cyprus.

- Connection with the labor market and the society

The Head of Program explained to the EEC that the graduates of the BSc have 100% employability at the Aesthetics field. The employability of the graduates is monitored by KES College and there is specific data on employability destinations:

- Privately owned beauty studios
- Spas
- Medical Therapy Beauty Centres
- Make-up artists
- Companies selling beauty therapy products and machineries.

The Director of the College explained that there is an effort to keep in contact with the graduates via scientific seminar events and there is the intention to create an Alumni society that would also enhance the reputation of the College.

The Head of Program highlighted the sponsoring/charitable activities of KES College which give students the opportunity to apply their knowledge and skills on beauty therapy on real case scenarios eg makeup of cancer patients, makeup of high school theatrical activities, etc. All these activities are explained in detail on a supplement that was provided to the EEC at the meeting.

3. RESEARCH WORK AND SYNERGIES WITH TEACHING

- Research Teaching Synergies

The KES College has a Research Centre. This is a new initiative and all projects are currently being funded internally by the College. There has been an effort to start collaborations with relevant companies. eg 21 students were actively involved in a survey project (300 questionnaires) with a makeup company.

The Director of the Research Centre explained to the EEC that there is an intention to create a synergy with Teaching on the BSc.

The EEC recommends that:

- this synergy can be incorporated to the Thesis module on year 4. This will enable all staff supervising Thesis projects to be supported by the Research Centre
- Statistical analysis skills (SPSS) should be incorporated on the IT module to enable students to analyse their collected data.
- The bibliography of the module could be enriched with peer-reviewed publications from journals, alongside the existing list of book sources.

4. ADMINISTRATION SERVICES, STUDENT WELFARE AND SUPPORT OF TEACHING WORK

- Administrative Mechanisms

The EEC met with the administrative staff and it was obvious that their individual roles are clearly defined and implemented.

There is a good rapport between administrative staff and teaching staff and students. During the meeting, students expressed their satisfaction with the Student Welfare Services.

The Welfare Services explained to the EEC about their provisions on students' special learning requirements eg for dyslexia there is provision of extra 30 min in exams and extended deadlines for coursework.

The EEC spoke also with the Colleges' Marketing manager and expressed their concern on the use of female noun ("φοιτήτριες") on the brochure, as this can limit the recruitment potential of the BSc. The EEC discussed this also with the General Director who explained that this BSc has always had female students although there is no gender restriction on the admission criteria.

- Infrastructures / Support

The library was well organised and had a very good selection of books and online resources for the program. The EEC discussed with the librarian who explained that library resources are kept up to date.

- Financial Resources Admin

The Director of the College confirmed that he has been investing in the development and continuing improvement of the Professions of Health, by purchasing new equipment, refurbishing the facilities eg makeup room and IT rooms, library resources, lecture theatre and investment in staff development.
