B. Guidelines on content and structure of the report

The EEC based on the external evaluation report (Doc.300.1.1 or 300.1.1/2 or 300.1.1/3 or 300.1.1/4) and the Higher Education Institution's response (Doc.300.1.2), must justify whether actions have been taken in improving the quality of the programme of study in each assessment area.

Committee the procedures for analysis and how this formed part of a more holistic approach to enhancement that takes place on an annual basis.
1.3. The Committee did have some concerns with some of the learning outcomes, such as in relation to some language and the extent to which this demonstrated a sufficient level of criticality. For example, the BA programme on International Relations and Security learning outcome refers to a 'basic understanding' and the Committee considered that this could potentially be presented in a more advanced manner	The PLOs are the following: PLO1. Explain the basic features of the contemporary international system. PLO2. Identify the major players (states, international organizations etc.) in the international environment. PLO3. Define the main theoretical approaches on international relations and security. PLO4. Describe the interdependence between international relations and security in the 21st century. PLO5. Identify the main sources of instability and insecurity in the international system. PLO6. Analyze international issues and formulate arguments in a clear, concise and effective manner, both orally and in writing.	Thank you for this update.

2. Student - centred learning, teaching and assessment (ESG 1.3)

Areas of improvement and recommendations by EEC	Actions Taken by the Institution	EEC's final recommendations and comments on the HEI's response
2.1. The programme requires to broaden the content to include more contemporary and critical security studies, and be better linked to contemporary research on international relations and security studies. This includes updated and more diverse bibliographies.	Done.  ✓ See attached Annex 1: Study Guides with updated and more diverse bibliographies  ✓ See our response in 1.1.	Thank you for this update which addresses our concerns.
2.2. The programme requires greater clarity regarding the progression of knowledge expected between the courses. Here the Committee suggests that the programme makes better use of the Bloom's taxonomy and updates the understanding of knowledge progression and production with contemporary pedagogical approaches.	Done. See Annex 2: Mapping CLOs - PLOs attached whereby the progression of knowledge expected between the courses is apparent from "understanding" in the first years of study to "explaining" and "analyzing" in the 3rd and 4th year of study.	Thank you for this update which addresses our concerns.
2.3. The EEC considers that there is a need for a better connection between research and teaching to ensure that the teaching is research-based, in line with contemporary research within the fields of international relations and security studies.	Done. See some of the recent publications of NUP staff members involved in the program which address the issue the EEC has raised: Cyber Security:  • The Future of Democracy in a Cyber-Security Framework, in Efthymiopoulos M.P. & Kyriakidis K., (2021), in Curran & Ijeh (Ed. 2021): "Crime Science and Digital Forensics: A Holistic View" London: CRC Press (Taylor and Francis Group). https://www.routledge.com/Crime-Science-andDigital-Forensics-A-Holistic-View/IjehCurran/p/book/9780367322557  • NATO's Current and Future Cyber-Defence Adaptability, in Efthymiopoulos M. It is good to read about these developments. We would encourage colleagues to keep themselves engaged with relevant professional associations.

5. Learning resources and student support (ESG 1.6)

Areas of improvement and recommendations by EEC	Actions Taken by the Institution	EEC's final recommendations and comments on the HEI's response
5.1. An additional function of the distance learning unit would be to enable research into teaching that can improve quality provision across NUP, by supporting teaching staff to design and assess the quality of their teaching, students' interactions and engagement etc. This activity would result in elearning related publications. Also, initiatives mentioned during the visit including identification and support of students at risk and ways of identifying use of ChatGPT are highly encouraged.	Done. ChatGPT. The I.T. Department is currently looking into different solutions for identifying machine-made writing. NUP's software vendor Turnitin is developing/testing an AI writing and ChatGPT detection capability plugin to be implemented in our Learning Platform. The University is planning to implement this feature as soon as they release this tool.	We appreciate that this is an ongoing area of development and that there are various networks and groups that are looking into this. It is good to hear about the work that you are attaching priority to in this area.
5.2. NUP would be advised to explore ways to make the EUwide Eduroam network available to students and staff.	Done. The I.T. Department has Eduroam, Edugain, and EduVPN Services running in NUP infrastructure and we are currently upgrading those services to the latest version with dedicated infrastructure. Those upgrades are performed with the help of the Cyprus Research and Education Network (CYNET), which provides these services for all Cypriot Universities and Research Centers.	Thank you for this update which clarifies matters.
